N.D. PAY

May 14 (AP) — The U. S. military command expected Gen. Clark to report on his investigation of the alleged Communist war prisoner exchange deal. The deal, which was reported to have been made by Gen. Clark, was expected to be announced today.

after he reportedly had made concessions to the prisoners in order to secure Dodd's release.

Pending Clark's detailed report, the Defense Department gave no indication of receding from its position that the "agreement" signed by Colson gave certain "erroneous impressions."

The Pentagon, the Far East Command and diplomatic officials were particularly upset over a sentence contained in Colson's message to the Red prisoners which said, "I do admit that there have been instances of bloodshed where many prisoners of war have been killed and wounded by U. N. forces" and that "in the future the prisoners of war can expect humane treatment."

The official disavowal of these statements pointed out the incidents referred to by Colson were brought on some time ago by rioting prisoners. And the Defense Department commented, with a note of warning, that no further such incidents are expected "unless the prisoners create them."

Aside from its impact on true negotiations at Panmunjom and its propaganda value to the Communists, the Koje incident brought up questions of responsibility and procedure under international agreement for the handling of war prisoners.

Lawmen Clash Over Stand by Tobin

Washington, May 15 (AP) — Sen. Elender (D-La.) today accused the CIO steelworkers and Secretary of Labor Tobin of doing "the sort of thing that leads to anarchy." But Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) said Elender was completely wrong.

Elender denounced the steelworkers for adopting a resolution calling for a new steel strike if the industry does not grant promptly a satisfactory wage increase.

The CIO union took the action yesterday at its convention in Philadelphia.

Before the resolution was approved, Tobin told the convention he stands "heart and soul and spirit" behind the steelworkers in their fight for more pay.

Vice President Barkley also addressed the convention, saying, "It is un-American for any group or any individual to defy or to deny or disregard the verdict of a governmental agency set up to settle these matters."

"It's absolutely wrong," said Elender. "The Wage Stabilization Board insured the power that was supposed to be exercised under the Taft-Hartley Act."

Without going into details, Elender said he had a hunch that an effort was under way to intimidate the Supreme Court, which now is considering the legality of President Truman's seizure of the steel which the Communist demands were based."

The Colson agreement, under which the POWs released Dodd Saturday night, is under heavy fire in Washington. The U. S. military command and some congressmen declared it implies the U. N. command treated prisoners of war in inhuman fashion. All echelons of the U. N. Command say this isn't so.

Statements which draw particular censure, and which North Korean Gen. Nam II seized upon for new verbal attacks on the Allies in Panmunjom, were:

"Many prisoners of war have been killed or wounded by United Nations forces." Prisoners "can expect humane treatment in the future." "There will be no more forcible screening."

American authorities quickly stated that prisoners have been killed in riots instigated by the Communist prisoners themselves; prisoners have been treated humanely; and there never has been "forcible screening" to determine whether prisoners want to go back to Red rule.

The Colson agreement also provided for prisoner committees.

Clark's repudiation was expected to have prompt repercussions in armistice negotiations and on the Communist radio.

Colson has been returned to his old command as chief of staff of the 1st Corps in Korea and Dodd is back with U. S. Eighth Army headquarters.

Religious Koje prison camp is now under command of Gen. Haydon Boatner. He relieved Colson Tuesday.

Clark got a first-hand account of the kidnapping and release of Dodd from the two former prison camp commandants yesterday. Clark said:

"Speculative press reports to the effect that Generals Dodd and Colson were verbally reprimanded by me at this conference are totally without foundation."

This statement was made several hours before he U. N. commander repudiated Colson's Koje agreement.

A high officer explained that "in military usage a reprimand is an official rebuke which closes a case."

Clark said: "The investigation of the circumstances surrounding the seizure of Gen. Dodd by Communist prisoners of war and the negotiations leading to his subsequent release is continuing and will be concluded at an early date. Until conclusion of the investigation, it is inappropriate for me to make public statements concerning it."

The Pentagon in Washington has asked Clark to supply a detailed report quickly. High defense officials had conferred with the Far Eastern command prior to his statements today.

Both Clark and Colson flew back to Korea last night. Both apparently resumed their duties while prepared to testify at a military board of inquiry.

should the U. S. Supreme Court void federal seizure of the steel properties.

Another resolution up for consideration today urges continued pressure for "the repeal of the evil and iniquitous Taft-Hartley Act" which it says "places serious restrictions on the right to strike."

A resolution before the convention concerning the need for a daily labor newspaper has this to say: "The extreme bias displayed by most of the American press against the activities of the labor movement and the failure to the press to provide accurate accounts of the facts involved in labor disputes has emphasized the importance of labor's own newspapers and publications."

The steelworkers are working, figuratively, for the government, thus actually not permitted to strike. USW President Philip Murray has said his union would not shut the mills while the government is in control.

Should the nation's highest court

dent Truman's seizure of the steel industry to avert a strike.

But Elender said he had implicit confidence that the court will not be swayed. He added:

"The union is adopting such a resolution, and Tobin in helping to incite the workers to such a move, were doing the sort of thing that leads to anarchy. The mills are in government possession and any strike would be against the government and that is what I understand as a move toward anarchy."

He did not include Barkley in this criticism because he said Barkley did not go as far as Tobin.

Humphrey said, however, that Elender was jumping to unjustified conclusions on the basis of only circumstantial evidence.

The steelworkers, Humphrey said, "are entitled to a wage increase in simple equity, and no one denies it—not even the steel companies." He added the only controversy is over how much.

Sen. Caperhart (R-Ind.) said the steelworkers are entitled to some wage increase "but not one which would break the stabilization line, as would the one recommended."

Meanwhile, Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.) praised the Senate Banking Committee for voting to scrap the present Wage Stabilization Board and replace it with a new all-public unit stripped of authority to recommend settlement terms in labor disputes.

Ferguson said the committee plans to make it an all-public panel, "to make it more honest because it is not subject to the same bias as the present board."

void seizure it is quite possible that the workers would quit immediately.

There was no guarantee that this would occur but the frankness of many delegates made it clear the union would not produce steel without a contract.

Delegates after delegate, in voices somewhat uncontrolled with anger, demanded that steel give its workers a substantial wage increase — or else — a strike.

Tobin in an address that brought cheers insisted that he thought the WSB recommendations were fair and that the steelworkers were entitled to win that settlement. He added he was "heart and soul and spirit" behind them.

Barkley said he hoped the steel-

Mrs. Cobb who was in charge of the meeting gave a report on the comforts the club made, and a report on the talent night program. She then explained why she could not accept the responsibility of being president and the group elected Mrs. Berton Stewart to serve the rest of the year.

Mrs. R. O. Westfall gave a report on comparative buying and Mrs.

Dismantling Bridge Barred by Government

St. Louis, May 15 (AP) — Government attorneys contend that dismantling of the old Harahan bridge's roadway across the Mississippi River would violate the congressional act which authorized construction of the span.

Roger P. Marquis, attorney for the Lands Division of the Justice Department, argued in the U. S. Court of Appeals here yesterday that the bridge — replaced by a new span across the river between West Memphis and Memphis — should be maintained for emergency use in case the new bridge is destroyed by an air attack.

The Justice Department is seeking to prevent Crittenden County, Ark., from dismantling the roadway. It carried the case to the Appeals Court on an appeal from Federal District Court in Arkansas, which refused to enjoin the county from razing the bridge.

The Court of Appeals took the case under advisement. Marquis also opposed the dismantling on the ground that Crittenden County had not filed its plans with the corps of engineers as required by law.

Attorneys James C. Hale and John A. Fogelman, representing Crittenden County, told the court if the new bridge should be destroyed, chances were the Harahan also would be lost. They also argued that Crittenden County Judge W. K. Ingram obtained permission from the engineers to dismantle the roadway. Crittenden County says the little used roadway costs too much to maintain.

Three Die for Holdup Slaying

Trenton, N. J., May 14 (AP) — Three convicts walked calmly to New Jersey's electric chair last night and paid for the holdup-killing of a Newark tavern patron.

They were Clarence Smith, 41, and Frederick Bunk, 28, both of Newark, and Robert Jellison, 26, of Union Beach.

Jellison was the only one of the trio to speak in the death chamber. In response to a prayer by a priest, he kept repeating "I have mercy on me, have mercy on me." He kept mumbling the words until the high voltage hit him.

The three had been in the death house since March 8, 1949. They were convicted for the killing of Peter Newcomb, of Orange, during a 1948 holdup at the Penn Tavern in Newark.

J. P. Hussen gave an interesting talk on the way she manages her home.

Mrs. Eley then showed the group some pictures and explained how they were made.

Mrs. Berton Stewart was the only one who had a birthday this month. She was given a pretty gift by the former president, Mrs. O. L. Westfall who has moved to Texarkana.

Mrs. Eley was given a handkerchief shower. Mrs. Lawton Cobb won the prize in the game. Mrs. R. O. Westfall explained how to make greeting cards and presented two to Mrs. Cobb.

After the grab bag the hostess served delicious refreshments to the fourteen women and four children present. The next meeting will be June 3 with Mrs. E. H. Breedlove.

Liquor Price Lid May Be Lifted

Washington May 15 (AP) — Government officials said today price controls on liquor probably will be lifted soon because the industry faces a critical situation caused by oversupply and a sharp drop in sales.

No rise in retail prices is expected when controls are suspended.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) Controls Suspension Committee has been studying the matter and is understood to be nearing a decision.

The public has shown a reluctance to buy liquor at prices asked since the federal tax was boosted $1.50 per gallon last Nov. 1 to a total of $10.50.

Officials said consumers are turning to cheaper priced beer and wine.

Republican Votes Tilt Toward Taft

By The Associated Press

The Taft-Eisenhower duel for Republican presidential nominating votes tilted toward the Ohio senator today with delegate-seating contests looming as a possibly decisive factor.

Sen. Robert Taft apparently picked up 10 more delegate votes in Tuesday's West Virginia primary. The other one apparently went to Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

Thus the Associated Press tally of delegate strength now shows Taft 364, Eisenhower 304. The tabulation is based on known and avowed alignments of delegates.

Nomination requires 604 votes and, in a close fight at the GOP convention in Chicago, a few votes — say 75 — could mean the difference between nomination and also-ran.

All or part of delegations with 75 votes are involved in disputes over rights to be seated at the July 7 convention. Delegates favoring both Taft and Eisenhower have been chosen in Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi. Another scrap over Texas' 38 votes comes to a head at a state convention May 27.

It has been 40 years since delegate contests figured prominently in a national convention. Rules call for this procedure. The national committee receives the dispute. Its decision can be appealed to the convention. Credentials committee whose report could be challenged by the convention itself.

Among Democrats, interest was divided between today's convention arrangements committee meeting at Chicago and tomorrow's primary in Oregon.

Party leaders huddling at Chicago over the July 21 convention will name a chairman and keynote speaker for the meeting and a committee to begin drafting a party platform.

Oregon voters, who name 18 Republican and 12 Democratic delegates as well as express presidential preferences, heard from three nominee candidates and stand-ins for Eisenhower.

On hand in person were Democratic Sen. Estes Kefauver of Ten-

Escape Tried Often in Prison Camp

Koje Island, Korea, May 15 (AP) — Five distant shots rang out today as newsmen interviewed Brig. Gen. Haydon Boatner, new Kojie Prison Camp commander.

Boatner, a veteran of 32 years in the infantry, didn't move a muscle. His deputy, Col. Maurice J. Fitzgerald, dashed from the room. When Fitzgerald came back he said "Another one came over the fence."

A prisoner had made a break for freedom and had been captured. Two other POWs had done the same thing earlier in the day.

Informed sources said several POWs climb over or under the fences almost every day. They are picked up and interviewed. Anti-Communists are sent to other POW camps.

Democratic and Republican Stassen and Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Kefauver is alone in the Democratic popularity poll, which is binding on delegates. Republican preferential results will not count in the GOP delegation.

Initiative Cut by High Tax Bar Group Told

By LEON HATCH

Hot Springs, May 15 (AP) — Arkansas lawyers were told today that federal income tax rates have become so excessive that "a shroud is placed upon initiative and a pall upon enterprise."

The speaker was Leon B. Catlett, Little Rock attorney, who outlined for the opening of the Arkansas Bar Association's annual meeting procedure in income tax cases where the taxpayer is accused of fraud.

Catlett told his fellow lawyers that approximately 55 million taxpayers annually pay at rates ranging from 23 per cent to 92 per cent of their income.

"These high tax rates," he declared, "are an invitation to seek ways of legally avoiding them."

"Experts" at reducing, minimizing, alleviating or avoiding taxes have flooded the market. Ill-advised schemes to lessen the tax load often resulted disastrously, leading to the imposition of sanctions and penalties upon the taxpayers.

For this reason, Catlett said, lawyers should be acquainted with the ways in which they may be helpful to a client who faces the penalties prescribed for fraud.

And, he added, "such a taxpayer most assuredly should employ an attorney as soon as he learns he is being investigated for fraud."

Catlett said that an attorney in a tax fraud case must be authorized to practice before the Treasury Department. Upon request the authorization is issued without examination to any lawyer in good standing, he said, but "There is a character investigation which serves to protect the client against dishonest representation."

The speaker pointed out that there are two types of fraud penalties, civil fraud penalties and criminal penalties for tax evasion. Criminal prosecution does not relieve the taxpayer of necessity of paying the civilly-imposed penalties.

After outlining the various steps in both types of case, Catlett declared that "I cannot emphasize strongly enough that counsel for a taxpayer charged with fraud should ask to be heard each time the case is reviewed by a different governmental branch or department."

Civil procedure in income tax cases from the viewpoint of the collector was reviewed by Lawrence D. Sullivan, Little Rock, an Internal Revenue agent group chief. His talk preceded that of Catlett.

Committee reports were to be heard this afternoon.

The Association's Junior Bar Section was scheduled to elect officers and to hold a forum on the approaching presidential race with representatives of several candi-

Jet Bomber Base Is a Step Nearer

Washington, May 15 (AP) — Construction of a medium jet bomber base near Little Rock, Ark., moved a step closer to reality yesterday when the project was approved by the House Armed Services Committee.

But the committee took no action on another Arkansas project — a $10,203,000 appropriation proposed for relocation of an air base at Dyessville.

The committee approved the full $31,165,000 asked by the Air Force for construction of the Pulaski County jet base, but the project still must have the approval of the House and Senate.

The project was included in the Defense Department's general message asking authorization of military construction. A separate bill will be necessary to provide money for the jobs.

Baptists Cite Need for Faith

Miami, Fla., May 14 (AP) — The need for a living faith in this critical period of history is the theme of the 95th meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention which formally begins today.

What the churches are doing to fulfill that need and what they should do will be discussed in a series of talks and reports.

Dr. J. D. Grey of New Orleans, president of the convention, was to make the keynote address and Dr. Ramsey Pollard of Knoxville, Tenn., the convention sermon.

Indication of the concern of the Southern Baptist churches over world conditions was apparent last night during the closing session of the preliminary pastors' conference.

Dr. R. Paul Caudill, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Memphis, Tenn., called for "a sweeping revival of New Testament religion" to save the nations of the world "from the fearful onrush of the juggernaut of Communism."

Pharmacists Name Marked Tree Man

Little Rock, May 14 (AP) — L. J. Clark of Marked Tree is the new president of the Arkansas Pharmaceutical Association.

Clark was elected to succeed Glenn C. Ricketts of Fayetteville at the organization's 70th annual convention here yesterday. Mrs. Ricketts was elected president of the auxiliary.

Other association officers are Roy Rhea of Little Rock, first vice president; James Harper of El Dorado, second vice president; and Frank J. Eden of North Little Rock, treasurer.

Women Told of America's Biggest Fight

Minneapolis, May 15 (AP)—The U.S. today is conducting one of the world's greatest "advertising" campaigns in seeking to counteract Communist propaganda Edward M. Mayer Jr., State Department consultant, said today.

"The big job is to convince people of other nations that the U.S. is not a 'bathhouse' democracy," Mayer said. "We want to prove to them that we have a culture based on long traditions of a free and temperate life, and that communist is alien to their basic needs and desires."

Mayer, addressing the 51st annual meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, said the Voice of America definitely was reaching behind Europe's Iron Curtain. He said this was proved by the money Russia spends to counteract its influence.

Dean H. T. Morse of the University of Minnesota School of Education, another speaker today, today told delegates schools were being attacked, among other sources, by persons constructing Americanism in narrow terms. He said that schools in any democracy must continue to deal with controversial issues to develop sharpened critical thinking by students.

Carol Binder, editorial director of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune, speaking at the international relations luncheon, said that four years of effort had convinced U.S. delegates to the U. N. there is no possibility of increasing freedom of information, through that agency.

"To the contrary," said Binder, "there is danger that encroachment upon freedom of information now practiced by individual nations may find legal or moral sanction through U. N. instruments or declarations."

Election of officers, to be installed at closing sessions tomorrow, was the principal convention business item today.

Baby Dies in Fire, Death Toll Is 5

By The Associated Press
Drownings and a fire claimed three lives in Arkansas Wednesday to raise the violent death toll for the week to five.

While Mrs. Donald Brewer of near Lepanto was returning a borrowed lawn mower to a neighbor, her farm home caught fire and took the life of her 8-month-old baby Wednesday.

The fire apparently started from a cigarette in the kitchen. Charles Kassinger said. Bobby French, age unavailable, of Harrisburg drowned Wednesday while attempting to swim a large drainage ditch near Wynne, Ark. The youth, a high school senior, was on a class picnic when the accident occurred.

Harold Robbins, 17-year-old Madison, Mo., high school junior drowned late Tuesday when he became exhausted and sank at Lake New Corning, Ark.

Senate Lines Up Witnesses on McCarthy

Washington, May 14 (AP)—A Senate rules subcommittee lined up more witnesses today to find out whether a hearing article written by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) was really worth the $10,000 he received from it.

The subcommittee is investigating charges filed by Sen. Benton (D-Conn) who seeks to have McCarthy expelled from the Senate.

Benton contends it was unethical and improper for McCarthy to accept the $10,000 from the Luskon Corp., a now defunct Columbus, O., prefabricated housing firm which was financed largely by government loans.

McCarthy has defended acceptance of the payment as entirely proper.

The subcommittee and Benton have made much of the government loan aspect of Luskon's financing. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation finally put $1.2 million dollars into the venture before foreclosing and taking a loss it has estimated may approach 30 million.

The subcommittee called back Carl G. Strandlund, former Luskon president, for a third day of questioning concerning the reasons his firm paid McCarthy the $10,000 in 1949 for an article which was incorporated in an advertising pamphlet.

Sen. Monroney (D-Okl.) a subcommittee member who has been critical of McCarthy, announced in advance of the hearing's resumption that he intended to question Strandlund and other witnesses "thoroughly as it's necessary we've got to find out whether that article really was worth the $10,000 paid for it."

Water is essential for all life processes.

Chicken Prices Continue Up Swing

Little Rock, May 15 (AP)—Arkansas chicken prices still are on their way up—apparently as the result of producers withholding of birds from the market.

And wholesalers say they are caught in a squeeze.

Broiler prices rose four to seven cents yesterday, reaching 20 and 30 cents a pound. Thus, the violently fluctuating market apparently has recovered from last week's break that threatened to put small Northwest Arkansas growers out of business. Prices dipped as low as 10 1/2 cents last week, and producers claim they must get 25 cents a pound to break even.

The rising market brought cries of discontent from wholesalers, who claimed they now are losing money. C. C. Morris, head of the Morris Produce Company in North Little Rock, said the uncertain market would "scare" consumers away from buying chickens.

"Before growers said they were losing money on their chickens, but now the wholesalers are the ones losing money," observed Morris.

Miles McPeak, agricultural statistician said the rising prices apparently were the result of producers holding chickens off the market.

Pharmacists Check on Obscene Books

Little Rock, May 15 (AP)—"Obscene and indecent books"—especially comic books—may be banned soon from Arkansas drug stores.

The Arkansas Pharmaceutical Association yesterday adopted a resolution condemning sale of "salacious, obscene and indecent books, magazines and periodicals with particular reference to comic books which feature and extol crime and sex."

Fifteen other resolutions also were adopted at the organization's 70th annual convention here. John Hammond of Little Rock was elected president of the Arkansas Drug Travelers Association, which met with the druggists. Other officers include T. C. Brannum of Blytheville, second vice president.

Beverage Permits Are Suspended

Little Rock, May 14 (AP)—Orders calling for suspensions of seven retail beer permits on charges of state liquor law violations were issued today by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Director George Callahan.

Those suspended, length of suspension and charges brought by the ABC:

Alfred Holmes, Negro, Stuttgart, 15 days, allowing patrons to gamble on the permitted premises.

Jack Jones, Negro, Camden, 30 days, selling liquor without a license.

Mary Sims Acumman, Cullendale, 30 days employing persons of questionable character on the permitted premises.

John E. Blythe and James A. Newman, Ft. Smith, 30 days, selling wine to intoxicated persons and allowing wine to be consumed on the permitted premises.

Richard Griffin, Negro, Stuttgart, 15 days allowing patrons to gamble on the permitted premises.

Pastella Gates, Negro, Marianna, 30 days, allowing intoxicated liquor to be sold on the permitted premises and allowing beer to be sold on Sunday.

Priest Gates, Negro, Marianna, 30 days, selling intoxicating liquor on the permitted premises and selling beer on Sunday.

All of the suspensions become effective June 1.

Charges Filed Against Gunman

Ft. Smith, May 14 (AP)—A charge of grand larceny has been filed against 26-year-old Jacob Alexander Yanke, the Pennsylvania gunman who strolled out of the Hartford jail after locking two officers in a cell.

Yanke was accused in the information filed yesterday by Prosecution James A. Gutensohn of grand larceny in the theft of two pistols from the policemen—Sebastian County Deputy Sheriff Dave Selph and Constable Andy Hamilton of Hartford.

Yanke, a merchant seaman, was captured in Wister, Okla., after he was shot three times by City Marshal Clarence Niblack while resisting arrest.

Another grand larceny charge has been filed against Yanke in Oklahoma in connection with the transfer of stolen goods into the state. He is recovering from his wounds in a hospital at Poteau, Okla.

IMMIGRATION BILL

Washington, May 15 (AP)—Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) said today opponents of the 302-page bill to over-haul immigration and naturalization law probably would move tomorrow to send it back to the Senate Judiciary Committee—and succeed.

WAC Observes Tenth Year

Washington, May 14 (AP) — The WAC, which started out as a wartime short story, celebrates its 10th anniversary today as a chapter in history.

With such words, Col. Mary A. Hallaren, WAC director, congratulated the 1,200 officers and 10,500 enlisted women of the Women's Army Corps. Increased by 5,000 since Korea, its members now serve at home and in the Far East, Europe, Austria and the Caribbean area.

The Pioneer group, Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, was comprised of 440 officers and 330 enlisted women. It began training July 20, 1942, and a year later numbered 60,000. Its World War II peak was 100,000.

The "auxiliary" tag was dropped by Congress in 1948 and the WAAC became the WAC, a component of the Army.

The Gulf Stream does not always flow in the same place, but along part of its course in some seasons of the year is hundreds of miles away from its location in other seasons.

Planes Collide in Midair, One Killed

Los Angeles, May 14 (AP) — Five surviving B29 crewmen told today of the terrific impact which knocked four of them unconscious when their big bomber and a Marine fighter plane collided yesterday nearly three miles above the Pacific Ocean.

Altogether, six members of the crew parachuted to safety and several are missing. One Marine, presumably the pilot of the Marine Corsair fighter plane, was killed. Those rescued suffered only minor injuries.

Witnesses said the big bomber appeared to break in two, the forward section exploding into flames.

Navy and Coast Guard vessels continued searching through the night southwest of Santa Catalina Island for any additional survivors.

Hope was not too high. Seven parachutes were sighted after the crash. They were worn by the surviving B29 crewmen and the dead Marine airman, whose body was recovered. Wreckage of the planes sank immediately. The bomber was from March Air Force Base.

Sgt. Lawrence L. McLaughlin, 22, flight engineer from Dayton, O., told newsmen, "It seemed as if the big B-29 just stopped dead in the air. It shook terrifically. I jumped through a hatch and pulled my parachute ripcord. The airplane was afire."

McLaughlin, who suffered bruises and abrasions, is the only known survivor of the forward section of the B-29.

He and four fellow crewmen were rescued by the cruiser Toledo after being in the rough water about a half hour. Newsmen interviewed them aboard the Toledo later at San Diego.

Asked if the Corsair was making practice attacks on the bomber when the tragedy occurred, the airman said only "it was a routine training mission." None of them saw the Corsair.

The first man rescued was Airman 3C Clarke H. Boesen, 24, a student gunner of Boetius, Neb. "God be my witness," he said, "I'll never say anything against the Navy again."

He and three other airmen didn't recall jumping clear of the stricken bomber.

"I was knocked out by the crash," said Boesen. "The next thing I knew I was floating in the air. I pulled the ripcord."

First Lt. Emmett E. Muterspaw, 30, radar bombardier, Middletown, O., recalled "I was thrown against a gun turret. The next thing I knew I was in the air on my back looking up at the sky. I didn't wait until the count of 10 to pull that ripcord."

You can swing it if you try

HAVE you, by any chance, been casting eyes at a Buick, and promising yourself that someday you will take the Big Step and have one all your own?

Let us whisper something to you. The "big step" isn't big at all.

We know that's true, because such a high percentage of present Buick owners traded in a car tagged as belonging in "the low-priced field."

So why not set your sights on this star performer?

Why not enjoy big-car comfort—big-car power—big-car prestige for your money?

There's one of these lively lovelies waiting for you to come in and try it.

Get the feel of its mighty Fireball 8 Engine, that's a gas-saving high-compression valve-in-head. You could pay $300 to $400 more for a car that doesn't match its horsepower.

Get the feel of Dynaflo Drive*, that lets you ride relaxed—feeds a silken flow of power—and at the same time cuts down on upkeep costs, by protecting the engine, the rear end, and even the tires, from driving strains.

Get the feel of a ride that cost a million dollars and more for controls of end-sway and side-roll and vertical "throw"—for X-bracing the frame and V-bracing the torque-tube keel—for a total of 15 ride-engineering features.

One thing you'll know for sure when you've tried it. This car wasn't "built to a price." It's a Buick through and through.

But the fact remains that—when you check the price of a Buick SPECIAL against the price tags on so-called "low-priced cars"—you'll find out you can swing it if you really want to.

And brother, will that make your family happy!

Acts Behind Fires in Germany

JAMES MARLOW

Washington, May 14 (AP)—Fires blazing in Germany. Here's how they were started:
1. The Four-United States. Russians, France-divided Germany into four occupation zones
at the end. The struggle for Germany between Russia and the West.

It passed with no hope for a treaty with united Germany. The Russians set up a puppet government, Communist-controlled, in East Germany. The West Allies let West Germans run their own government, headed by Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.
Occupying forces stayed but Adenauer allowed Adenauer's government much freedom. The West Allies formed the Atlantic Defense Pact. This meant building an army this would be less than an army without the West Germans,

were offered a deal:
1. A contractual agreement—fancy for what in effect would be a treaty with West Germany, linking it with the West. Ad-enauer was for it.

West Germany was asked to provide troops for the European Defense Pact. This was not the same as German rearm as it pleased the Russians. The West Germans would be part of the European army, not a new German machine.

Russians, instead of pulling Germany into the Soviet orbit, losing West Germany to the West. So they offered a deal to the West.

1. Germany should be unified; 2.
Big Four should finally sign long-delayed peace treaty; 3.
Germans should be allowed to re-
arm and make their own weapons;
4. Unified Germany couldn't have any military alliances.
The purpose was clear: By appearing to the old German Nationals and giving the West Ger-

Hudson Wasp Class "D" Winner In Economy Run

Driver Jim Abbott, of Los Angeles, proudly displays the handsome trophy awarded to the Hudson Wasp, Class D winner in the 1952 Mobilgas Economy Run. The Wasp, entered by the Southern California Hudson Dealers Association, topped its class with 47,7830 ton miles per gallon and 20,4638 actual miles per gallon in the 1,415-mile run from Los Angeles to Sun Valley, Ida. The arduous course, ranging from 70 feet below sea level to 8,000 feet

above, and through hot and cold temperatures, offered a test under every driving condition that might be encountered by the average motorist in a year's driving. Standing (left to right) are Joe Ricketts, Hart Fullerton, and Rolfe Loudon, members of So. California Hudson Dealers Association.

Broiler Prices Up Some But Warning

Little Rock, May 14 (AP)—Prices
for broilers on the poultry market in Arkansas have increased, but an expert warned growers against optimism that last week's plunging prices are a thing of the past.

W. S. Pollard of the Agricultural Extension Service said yesterday that a price rise of five to six cents this week may be due to producers withholding birds from the market rather than from increased demand.

For the second consecutive day, broilers—which dropped as low as 19 1/2 cents a pound last week—
sold yesterday for 25 and 26 cents
a pound at markets in Northwest
Arkansas and Batesville.

In St. Louis, Joseph Waddick,
publisher of the Daily Market Reporter, said producers are just about breaking even at these prices. Retailers are paying about 28 1/2 cents a pound for broilers,
he said.

Arkansas growers blamed the price drop on too much production, too little demand and not enough market facilities. The Arkansas Poultry Improvement Association had suggested a 25 to 30 per cent cut in production to meet the emergency, which threatened to put some growers out of business.

State Escapes Is Captured

Fl. Smith, May 14 (AP)—One of two men who bluffed their way out of the Sebastian County jail here last month has been captured in New Mexico.

Sheriff Prentice Maddux said yesterday that Sheriff Claude Irwin of Luna County, N. M., had notified him that Thomas Henry Windsor, 20, was being held there on a charge of seducing a 16-year-old girl. However, Irwin said the charge probably would be dropped in favor of federal charges of jail break and Dyer Act violation—the same charge that Windsor was being held on here when he made his break.

Windsor and 36-year-old LeRoy (Pete) Murray, a convicted bandit, used a spoon and a scrub brush to force Jailer Charley Myers to help them to freedom April 24.

Murray, a federal parole violator awaiting transfer to the state penitentiary to begin a 10-year sentence for armed robbery, still is at large.
Windsor first was arrested in Malvern, Ark., on a charge of driving a stolen automobile from Arkansas to Malvern, U. S. Attorney R. S. Wilson said yesterday he had asked that Windsor be returned to Fl. Smith for trial.

DOROTHY DIX

Obnoxious Friends

Dear Miss Dix: My problem is not unusual, I guess, but I am 30 and at that age I can't afford to make a fool of myself. I have been known as a man hater, I'm really not, but I just haven't met the right one.

My girl friend's husband is on a bowling team, and on Friday night
we pick him and some other men up and drive them home, usually stopping for a snack. One man is a bachelor who seems to like me
I like him, too. We are both shy.
When the rest of the boys found out
he liked me, they teased him a lot,
going so far as to send silly letters
to his office.

I'm afraid if I ever had a chance with him, these friends have ruined
it. They have me so upset that I decided not to meet them after bowling, but when Friday night
comes along I find myself dressing up to look as nice as possible and tagging along. I can't tell my parents about it, for after being level-headed for so long they'd think I was completely foolish. I can't understand how I ever got a crush at my age.

Answer: You are being very unfair to yourself, Faye. You make 30 sound like senile old age. In the first place, there is absolutely no age limit to romance, and in the second place 30 is much too young for you to feel beyond the pale of sentiment. You're a personable, normal young woman with a perfectly normal feeling for a nice
young man.

They Should Help Out
Your so-called friends, however,
are behaving in an obnoxiously childish fashion. If they possessed one ounce of understanding they'd do their best to smooth your path to romance, instead of obstructing
it. Your bachelor friend also is partly at fault, he should have enough initiative to ignore their kidding and ask to take you out alone. Also, you need a little get-up and go yourself.

Your problem needs a direct tackle unhampered by the impeding efforts of your friends. How about finding an occasion for a social gathering at your house, inviting the whole bowling crowd?
Suggest it casually some Friday evening over the snack. If your bachelor fails to react, drop the subject, if he shows any interest, go ahead full speed. Or you might invite him to a dance or party given by your church, or place of employment. A couple of spare concert tickets could provide an entering wedge.

Such occasions provide perfectly plausible excuses for a girl to invite a man out, and are manna
from heaven to a shy bachelor.
Better act fast! Summer's a'comin' with the end of bowling and you surely want to have some progress made by then. In the meantime, ignore the silly jokes of your friends and hope their co-bowler does the same. Best of luck. And remember! You're anything but a their own. The Russians answered back. Last night the Allies sent the latest note in the series. Nothing's happened yet, nothing may. But here briefly is what the two sides propose.

Before the Russian idea of uniting all Germany can be carried out, the Allies insist, all Germans must be able to vote for a new government in free elections.
They don't want Communist-rigged
elections in East Germany.

But how could anyone be sure the elections were free? The Russians suggested the Big Four handle that one. More of that endless bickering between the West and Russia? The Allies said no thanks, they want an impartial commission to take care of the free election problem.

2. The Russians said the Big Four should go to work at once on a peace treaty for a unified Germany, but the Allies said: Whos, no treaty talks start before a new and united German government can take part.

3. The Allies took a dim view of Russa's plan to let all Germany
rearm.

4. The Allies rejected the Russian suggestion that a united Germany
be forbidden to make military alliances.

staid old maid, and see that you never become one!

Dear Miss Dix: I am 20 years old and very happily married except for the fact that my husband's mother and grandmother have tried to run our lives ever since we were married. They also try to raise my baby. I know it's partly our fault for letting them do it so long, but I didn't want to cause hurt feelings. Now my husband has been called to duty in California. He wants me to join him and I want to very much. As soon as my mother-in-law found out about it, she began to discourage me.
They are willing for me to go, but not to take the baby. I believe in times like these families should be together. How can I tell them without hurting them?

MRS. H.
Answer: You're a very wise girl
for your age. For many reasons taking the baby and joining your husband will be the best thing for you. As you say, families should be together, even though the parting may hurt your fond in-laws for awhile. Since you are such a young mother, they probably think you need help and guidance much more than you do. Their love for the baby is perfectly understandable, but his place is with you. Tell them that your husband wants both you and his son with him, and in view of the unsettled conditions of the world, you want to have every possible minute together. Assure them that you'll be back before too long,
and will miss them greatly while you're gone.
You have so many fine qualities

Benton Slayer Found Guilty

Benton, May 14 (AP)—Convicted slayer Curtis Willis was found guilty today by a Saline Circuit Court jury on a charge of criminal duty on his 15-year-old daughter.

The jury brought in the verdict
at 5 a. m. after deliberating all night. It recommended 18 years imprisonment for Willis. Circuit Judge Ernest Minter has not pronounced sentence.

A South American species of mantis is so large that it attacks
small frogs, lizards and birds.

that I'm sure tact is among them.
This is a situation that calls for plenty of it, and I'm sure you'll manage to leave home with no
hurt feelings—or at least, no
seriously hurt ones.

Dear Miss Dix: For three months
I have been going with a young man of 26, and we planned to marry this summer. We had been seeing each other almost every day until a month ago. Then he made a date, as usual, but never kept it.
Since then I haven't heard from
him. Should I call or write him, or wait?

MARY B.
Answer: Since your relation ship
had gone as far as a formal engagement you were certainly with in your rights to call the day after he broke the date with you. He must have had some logical reason for not keeping it, and you are most assuredly entitled to an explanation. Better ask for it without further delay.

Strandlund Denies Brag 'Friends'

Washington, May 13 — (UP)—Strandlund, former president of the firm which borrowed heavily from the government and then out of business, denied today he bragged of "powerful friends" in Congress.

Strandlund was recalled by the subcommittee for testimony in the second day of public hearings on the fitness of Joseph R. McCarthy (R.) to serve in the senate. A first phase of the investigation is on payment of $10,000 by a defunct Lustron Corp. Strandlund headed, to McCarthy for writing part of a housing booklet in 1948.

Strandlund said he took "extreme exception" to the statement of Walter L. Dunham, a director of the firm, which financed Lustron Corp., "intimated that he had powerful friends within the administration and in Congress."

The existence of a 1949 memo by Dunham to that effect was disclosed yesterday. Strandlund said Dunham apparently tried to "prejudice" other members of the RFC board against him and against Lustron. If he had had any such powerful friends, Strandlund added, he would not have been so "indiscreet" as to mention them.

The subcommittee is holding hearings on McCarthy's dealings with Lustron as part of its inquiry into charges by Sen. William Jenner (D-Conn.) that the Wisconsin Republican is unfit to be a senator.

Abilene, With a Somewhat Worried Look of Pride, Gets Set to Welcome Eisenhower

By HAL BOYLE

Abilene, Kan., May 14 (AP)—This celebrated old cow town is looking forward with somewhat worried pride to the return next month of one of its local boys who made good.

He used to work at the creamery here, where other employees taught him how to shoot craps.

There wasn't much of a crowd at the railroad station to see him off when he went East, years ago. But Abilene, a town of about 7,000 population, is expecting 50,000 to 100,000 visitors to help welcome back its favorite son—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Residents here aren't sure whether the event will tear the town apart. But it is no secret most hope it will springboard "Ike" into a Republican presidential nomination.

During the 2-day homecoming celebration starting June 4, Gen. Eisenhower will lay the cornerstone for a museum to house his war trophies, address a throng in Eisenhower Park, have a press conference and review a mammoth parade containing 30 floats symbolizing his career.

"Ike" definitely has replaced Wild Bill Hickok as the No. 1 hero of Abilene. Hickok was the peace officer who brought law and order to the town in the wild and woolly days when it was America's top cattle shipping center and its saloons outnumbered its business houses.

Summarizing home town sentiment for Eisenhower, Charles M. Harger, 88-year-old publisher of Abilene's Post-Record-Chronicle, said: "If you want to know how the people here feel about Ike, go out on the street and call him a bad name—and see how quick something happens to you."

Above the main street floats a giant sign saying: "Eisenhower for president." It has fallen down, or been blown down, four times since last November. Now it is firmly caulked to two banks.

"We've spent $150 to keep that sign up," said Henry H. Jamison, young newspaper executive here who served as an AP war correspondent with Eisenhower's forces in Europe. "It'll stay up now even if the bank walls fall down."

Despite the sign, Jamison, one of the committee members in charge of the Eisenhower celebration, said that "his welcome home is not set up on a political basis. We have Democrats on the committee."

The planners are expecting at least 10 state governors for the festivities. Among the scores of special trains will be two from Texas—one containing 115 Texans, the other containing the horses they will ride in the parade. Some 700 peace officers from all parts of Kansas will be brought here to handle traffic.

One of the more delicate issues involved is how long General Eisenhower plans to remain in this first visit home.

"Naturally, we want him to stay on as long as he can," said one resident, and added dubiously: "But I don't see how the town can handle the crowds for more than two days."

The mean of most visitors here is Ike's old family home. The Eisenhower boy turned it over to the Eisenhower Foundation after the death of their mother in 1946.

It has been kept just as she left it. Her dust cap still hangs from a rocking chair in the room in which she died. On the wall of the second floor bedroom where Eisenhower slept as a boy is hung the old-fashioned motto: "Thy will be done."

Pleasure Yacht in Distress

San Francisco, May 14 (AP)—The Coast Guard reported today the pleasure yacht Eloise, in distress 22 miles southwest of the Golden Gate, was in no immediate danger of sinking.

There was no report on the safety of the nine or 10 adults and teenagers believed aboard. An 83-foot Coast Guard patrol boat was within two miles, preparing to remove them if necessary. Pilots spotted the Eloise from overhead. The yacht radiated at 8:10 a. m. CST it was sinking in rolling seas. The message said nine were aboard, although an 88-foot yacht Eloise left here Monday with 10 passengers.

REGAINS HONOR
Manila, May 15 (AP)—Mook Kim regained his honor today. He did it by slaying the throat of Chang Chit and then leaping to a burning death in a barbecue pit. In suicide notes Mook said Chang persecuted him and death for both was the only way Mook could redeem his honor.

Indian corn or maize is unknown in the native state, but is believed to have originated in tropical America.

No Survivors on Plane in Brazil

Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, May 14 (AP)—Searchers reaching the wreck of a Pan American plane downed in Brazil's tangled northern jungles said today they found no survivors among the 30 persons aboard.

The 12-man private party, led by Congressman Line De Matos, beat their way to the area last night. De Matos and three comrades were dropped at the disaster scene by helicopter. The plane crashed 15 days ago.

The party is awaiting the arrival of an expedition sent out by Pan American Airways.

Woman Blames U.S. for Its Position Today

Minneapolis, May 13 (AP)—America reached its present position of peril in the world today through step-by-step sacrifices of principle for expediency. Mrs. Oscar A. Ahlgren said here today.

"Russia does not have to go to war with the United States to win," she told delegates to the 61st annual meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. "If we fail to bestir ourselves, Russia can win victory from our own apathy."

Rumania, Bulgarians to take Bulgaria, and she took Poland with Poles. If Russia takes America, she will take it with Americans." Mrs. Ahlgren, Whiting, Ind., federation vice president, urged that more accent be placed on the teaching of Americanism from kindergarten through college curriculum. She is opposed for the presidency in the election to be held later this week.

"The training school for democracy is in the public schools," she said. "I want American history taught in every school. I would also like to see the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution framed and hung in every school room as constant reminders of our rich American heritage."

"We are allowing a generation of boys and girls to grow up without any knowledge of the advantages of our way of life. Instead, the Socialists and Communists are subtly planting distrust in the minds of the youth of this country so they are being carried away from the virtues of integrity and faith upon which this nation was founded."

George P. Parrick, deputy commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration, urged the women to help that agency establish closer lines of communication with consumers. He said this would permit of better enforcement of the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act.

Parrick said that his agency had been responsible for seizure of an average of 23.4 tons of filthy food for each working day in the past six months. Most condemnations, he reported, came about because of contamination of foodstuffs in storage by rodents and insects.

By protocol, arriving or departing presidents, ex-presidents, foreign heads of state or members of a reigning royal family receive a 21-gun salute and four ruffles and flourishes.

Wake Up To More Comfort Without Nagging Backache

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 18 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. # Clarksville Votes in Park Meters

Clarksville, May 14 (AP)—Clarksville voters have approved installation of parking meters here. The vote in yesterday's special election was 218 for; 74 against. Clarksville is the 34th Arkansas municipality to approve the meters.

Benjamin Franklin is believed to have drawn the first chart giving the approximate location of the Gulf Stream.
